YOU KNOW YOU SHOULD BE HAVING "THE TALK"... BUT HOW?

Sexual development is a normal process that all young people experience, and parents need tools and resources to educate and guide their children.

This two hour workshop will help middle school parents:

- Learn about the social, emotional and physical development of their child's sexuality and how to create an ongoing, age-appropriate dialogue with kids at any age and stage.
- Establish themselves as their child's main resource for information.
- Gain tools for initiating conversations with your child and answering their tricky questions.
